For the prevention and cure o
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor s feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of person can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

The Angler and the Philosopher.

A FABLE.

Beside a gentle murmuring brook
An angler took his patient stand;
He eyed the stream with anxious look,
And wav'd his rod with cautious hand.

The bait with nicest art was drest,
The fishes left their safe retreat,
And one more eager than the rest, [ceit.
Look'd, long'd, and swallow'd the de-

Too late she felt the poignant smart,
Her pitying friends her fate deplore;
The angler with well practis'd art,
Play'd, hook'd, & drew her to the shore.

Lur'd by the beauty of the days
The sun low sinking in the sky,
A sage pursued his walk that way,
And saw the bleeding victim die.

Far in the vale of years declin'd,
He watch'd the course of nature's law,
And thus, with philosophic mind,
He moraliz'd on what he saw:

Indulge awhile the pensive vein,
And fix this image in your mind;
You've hook'd a fish, observe its pain,
And view the state of human mind.

Fate gives us line, we shift the scene,
And jocund traverse to and fro—
Pain, sickness, still will intervene,
We feel the hook where'er we go.

If proudly we our schemes extend,
And look beyond the present hour,
We find our straiten'd prospects end,
And own an over-ruling power.

Awhile we sport, awhile lament,
Fate checks the line and we are gone,
Dragg'd from our wonted element,
To distant climes, untried, unknown.

FOR THE GAZETTE.

To the worshipful the Common Council of Alexandria:

Humbly complaining, your petitioners represent unto your worshipful body—That they find themselves altogether incompetent to discharge the arduous and multiplying duties required of them, and that in consequence of this inability, they are subjected to great derision and abuse by the citizens generally; but more especially by a certain class of the community known by the name of 'Milk Maids.' Your petitioners further represent unto your worships, that as good and faithful servants of the corporation, duly impressed with the importance and privileges of their office, they have endeavored to discharge their duty to the satisfaction of all concerned: but so it is, that the rapid accumulation of their duties, added to the scanty supply of provisions furnished to your petitioners, have obliged them, in a great measure, to withdraw from that circle in which they were designed to move, and 'to hide their diminished heads' and tails in corners remote from fields of action most congenial to their nature and propensities—to the great grief of their former associates. The vexation of the persons above named—the unspeakable chagrin of your petitioners, and the disrepute of your worshipful body, under whom they hold their appointments. Your petitioners further represent unto your worships, that in consequence of the refirement of your petitioners, as above set forth and accounted for, divers gross and indecorous actings and doings are carried on and exhibited in and about our streets and high-ways of the town, to the great disparagement of the reputation of your petitioners, and which, as guardians of the morals and police of the town, your petitioners are advised, are properly cognizable by your worshipful body. To the end, therefore, that your petitioners and all others concerned, may be relieved in the premises, your petitioners pray that an order may be forthwith issued by your worshipful body, to the superintendant of police directed, commanding him to provide for your petitioners such reinforcement as the nature of the case may seem to require—and your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

THE TWO JOHN BULLS.

ALEXANDRIA:
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 1818.

Arlington House, the seat of Mr. Custis, about five miles from this town, was struck by lightning during the storm on Saturday morning. The lightning entered the roof and passed down by a temporary wooden pier, erected to support the unfinished part of the portico; but fortunately without any injury to the building or the family, who were at breakfast at the time.

It is gratifying to trace the progress our country is daily making in political economy and general improvement. Under the first head, Saving Banks are not the least conspicuous. They have been established in some of our largest cities, and their operations have been attended with the most flattering success. A late Philadelphia paper contains an outline of the principles by which the bank in that place is governed; from which we make the following extracts.

Deposits as low as one dollar are received, and when the sums deposited amount to five dollars and upwards, an interest of near five per cent. will be allowed.

The dividends, if not withdrawn at the commencement of each year, will become principal and bear interest, and the surplus of interest, after defraying the expenses of the establishment, shall be divided every three years among the depositors who have had funds lying to their credit for the preceding 12 months, in proportion to the amount of their deposits.

No emolument whatever is received by the President, Trustees or Managers, for their services.

The following Tables will show the benefits to be derived from an early attention to habits of saving.

AN APPRENTICE

To any of the mechanic arts or trades, who by over-work can earn from his master one dollar per week (and many of them earn more), at the end of five years may, by depositing his gains weekly with the society, have a capital when he is free, sufficient to set him up in many branches of business.—His one dollar a week would amount

In 1 year to	$54
2 years	109
3	167
4	229
5	293

A JOURNEYMAN MECHANIC,

Who is diligent, economical and industrious, and who is desirous of being established in business for himself, but is not able for the want of capital to do it, would be enabled to accomplish his wishes in a few years, by beginning early in life to save his earnings. By depositing five dollars a week, he would have at the end of

1 year	$270
2 years	549
3	841
4	1147
5	1468

[The tables are continued to male and female domestics, to a father of a family, and to children.]

Benjamin Grayson Orr, Esq. was on Monday last re-elected mayor of the city of Washington for the ensuing year.

Flour, at St. Thomas May 22, was $12 50 per bbl.—Coffee $22 per 100 lb. and on the rise.

Winchester, June 6.

DESTRUCTIVE FLOOD.

This town and its vicinity have been visited by one of the most destructive floods known for many years. It commenced raining on Saturday night last, and continued with intervals during the whole of Sunday and Sunday night. All the water courses were raised to a height scarcely ever before known. The damage sustained is immense; but it is impossible for us to form any thing like a correct estimation. Mill-dams have been broken, fences swept away, meadows overflowed, and much grain in the low grounds destroyed. The injury done to property in this town alone is supposed to amount to 30 or 40,000 dollars—principally caused by the filling of cellars where groceries were stored. [Constellation.

SINGULAR SUICIDE.

Extract of a letter to the editor of the Winchester Constellation, dated Newmarket, Va. May 26, 1818.

"Mr. John Camm, Clerk of Amherst Court, put a period to his existence a few days ago, in the following extraordinary manner:—He attached a quantity of paper by sewing, or some other method, to the sheets of the bed—and then standing up, wrapped himself in the sheets, and deliberately set them on fire, and burnt himself to death. DAIRE, that fell destroyer of the human race, is supposed to be the cause of this horrid deed."

New-York, June 4.

LAW CASE.

Yesterday came on the cause of The People vs. Henry B. Hagerman, before his honor the mayor and aldermen Thorpe and Munson. It occupied the court from noon till half past one in the morning, when the charge of the court was delivered to the jury. The indictment contained two distinct charges; the first for an assault and battery, and secondly for an assault and battery, with an intent to murder. The court, in charging the jury, took the same distinction respecting the word intent, in the indictment, that was taken by the late mayor, in Rogers's reports, namely, that there is an actual intent and an implied one; and gave his opinion that there was no evidence of the former, and it was left for the jury to judge whether there was any of the latter; for his own part he was inclined to think there was not. The jury returned into court after an absence of twenty minutes, and by Mr Eckford, their foreman, delivered the following verdict:—"That the defendant is not guilty of assault and battery with an intent to murder, but guilty of an assault and battery of the highest nature."

DEAF AND DUMB ASYLUM—Concluded.

Specimens of original composition, by some of the most advanced pupils in this Asylum.

The writer of the following letter is a lady of mature age, who has been in the asylum since April 15, 1817. At the time of her admission she could not write even the simplest phrases; so that in a little less than one year, she has made the progress which this, her own composition, will indicate.

Hartford, April 3d, 1818.

My Dear Friend,

I am writing myself an original lesson. I intend to write letter to you. I was agreeably talking with you. I hope you will be better. I was agreeably surprised to see G. W. letter their gift of money to the asylum. I am in the class of Mr. G. who has 11 pupils. Every Saturday morning Mr. G. explained and lectured all the deaf and dumb who attentively about God and Christ, &c.—also Mr. G. prayed and made signs with us up. We learn a little of the bible. David was inspired, who wrote the psalm to sing.—Mary's child of Jesus Christ was the Son of God. They were in a manger of the stable no room and inn. Joseph was poor, who was a good man, he was a carpenter. Joseph was married to Mary.—Jesus Christ died to save us. Moses was very meek. Anciently Noah's ark floated on the waters deluge. Mr. C. was at Washington last January, he returned 4 1-2 weeks. He saw the president and congress.—Miss F. and I were teachers alternately to our pupils which made us glad while Mr. C. was in Washington. I wish to stay here. I like the asylum very much. There are thirty one pupils in the asylum—they are very well. I am very happy with all my friends the deaf and dumb. Every noon I am teacher and make signs to my two pupils. The roads are very bad now. It is unpleasant day. I have often gone to church. The deaf and dumb are very glad to come in the asylum. We thanked God. I hope I love God and Christ. I hope to be forgive, and have peace and avoid wickedness. God is a spirit. Anciently I have never read the bible. I wish to read the bible very much. I am busy with writing and learning.

I am yours affectionately friend.

The following letter was written by a young lady, whose knowledge of language ten months and a half previous to its composition, was limited to the names of a few acquaintances and places, and a very small number of the most common objects. Of pronouns, verbs, and particles, and the construction of the simplest phrases, she was quite ignorant.

Hartford, April 3d, 1818.

My dear Mr. G.

You told me some write a letter to you. I am glad to write and you will go to N. York. I am happy you will see Mrs. B. You are often sick. You must be journeying and I hope you will be better and teach the deaf and dumb. I am sorry the deaf and dumb will one week go away the vacation. You must tell them money for a new asylum. We have a small full persons of asylum. I hope we shall learn the bible in one year. Mr. C. made signs and teaches the deaf and dumb about God and Jesus Christ and every Saturday. I believe Mr. C. will go to France in one year. We are sorry it. We have understood God and Jesus Christ. I am very happy them. We are talking with us some about God and Jesus Christ. I was much busy with writing and studying confused many names I cannot read a letter before I came to the asylum. I wish to talk with you about God and Jesus Christ, but you are much busy with signs the deaf and dumb. I love each other all the deaf and dumb. Oh! you will go away. We are not writing on the slate. I hope your sister C. will come and see us with ride you. I wish to talk with C. I am glad to hear Mr. and Mrs. W. will come here to live in the asylum. I wish to learn the bible.

I am yours affectionately friend.

A young man whose knowledge of the language extended only to the names of a few friends and places, and the most common objects, and who was unable to compose the simplest phrase, is the writer of the following letter, the result of a little more than ten months instruction.

Eleven months instruction in the asylum produced the following letter, written by a young lady, who, previous to her admission, was in the same state of ignorance with regard to the use of language, as has been described in the preceding remarks. It may serve to explain some parts of it, to observe that it was written at her own home, during a vacation.

Guilford, April 18th, 1818.

My dear Friend,

I have an opportunity to write you this morning. I am glad to write you. I am composing myself. I am writing to you agreeably your promise. All our family are well. They were surprised to see him. Last Friday morning their father were going to the coach. I left the asylum that I was very sorry.—My father and my sister and I were going to ride. We arrived at home 8 o'clock Friday evening, and we must thank God to bless us, and the road was very rut.—I was very glad to meet our family. We saw Mr. R in Middletown. We dined at deacon B. He was well. Mr. R. talked and wrote me about God and Jesus Christ some. A few days he will come to Gifford. I often think of all the deaf and dumb and my friends in Hartford. I contented at Home, but I wish to see the deaf and dumb. I thank you because you always taught the deaf and dumb a year in the asylum. You must be journey. THERE came to the stables of the subscriber, on Monday the 1st inst. a person calling himself and obtained a horse and gig on hire, as he said, to go to Ellicott's Mills, and return in the afternoon of the same day; and as he has not yet returned, there is strong reason to believe that his intention is to swindle me out of my property. He is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, apparently about 25 or 30 years of age, of genteel appearance, and well calculated to deceive.

The horse is a grey, about 15 hands high, 9 or 10 years old, has a switch tail, a speck on the right eye, and moves swiftly. The gig has a green body, carriage and wheels black, the lining of blue cloth, red stuff top, linings, plated double—outside joints.

I will give the above reward for the recovery of the horse and gig, and the detection of the scoundrel, or 20 dollars for the horse and gig only, and all reasonable expenses if delivered to me, No. 26, North Liberty street, Baltimore.

Absconded,

May 18 JAMES SANDERSON.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE's MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.
